Using Case Method in Asynchronous Learning Environment

Date : 20.07.2020 To 25.07.2020

PREAMBLE: The case method is a widely accepted part of pedagogy in management education. It has been established that the case based pedagogy leads to enhanced learner participation, enriching classroom discussions, sharpening of problem solving and cognitive skills of the learners, facilitation of peer learning, development of a cross-functional perspective and a holistic approach towards real life corporate realities, social & entrepreneurial issues on account of a multi-dimensional approach.

OBJECTIVES : Faculty members need to appreciate the potential of Case Method as a pedagogical tool for participatory student learning and must develop the skills necessary for writing a case, leading case discussions, drafting case teaching notes and design case-based courses.

OUTCOMES: At the end of the FDP the participants shall be able to:

1. Identify potential topics & the background material for drafting a case
2. Design a Case in an area of management or an allied domain
3. Select the appropriate approach to case based pedagogy
4. Appreciate the role of facilitation in leading a discussion class using the case method
5. Use case method for formative assessment & summative assessment
6. Draft a teaching note for a case study

FOR WHOM : The programme is designed for full time approved undergraduate and post-graduate management teachers working in Management Institutes & Commerce Colleges who teach courses in management and allied domains.

APPROACH: Participants shall be expected to engage in interactive online sessions, individual and group exercises, group discussions and online presentations, reflection activities and assignments.

REQUIREMENTS: Laptop with decent configuration (webcam and microphone essential), stable internet connection.

FEES: There are no fees for the programme.

LAST DATE OF APPLICATION: 15th July 2020

CERTIFICATE: Participants who meet the attendance criteria and complete all assignments within the stipulated timeline will be issued certificates.
